Teaching Point: Note the slide from C#m to E

[D] [D] [G] [D]

(D) Just about a year ago, I (G) set out on the (D) road.

Seekin' my fame and (Bm) fortune (G) lookin' for a pot of (A) gold.

(D) Things got bad and (Bm) things got worse, I (G) guess you know the (D) tune,
Oh Lord, (A) stuck in old Lod- (G) i again (D)

(D) Rode in on a Greyhound, and I'm (G) walkin' there, by the (D) road.

I was just passin' (Bm) through, must be seven (G) months or (A) more.

I (D) ran out of time and (Bm) money, it (G) looks like the two were my (D) friends.

Oh Lord, (A) stuck in old Lod- (G) i again (D)

[D] [G] [D] [D] || [G] [D]

(D) A man from a magazine, (G) said I was on my (D) way.

But somewhere I lost con- (Bm) nection, I (G) ran out of songs to (A) play.

(D) I came into town a (Bm) one-night stand, it (G) looks like my plans fell (D) through.

Oh Lord, (A) stuck in old Lod- (G) i again (D)

[E] [E] [A] [E]

(E) If I only had a dollar for (A) every song I've (E) sung.

Or (E) every time I (C#m) had to play while (A) people sat there (B) drunk.

You (E) know I'll catch the (C#m) next train, (A) back to where I (E) live.

Oh (E) Lord, I'm (B) stuck in Lod- . (A) i again (E)
