Rod Stewart

[D] [D] [C] [C]
[G] [G] [G] [G]

[G] Who's that knocking on my [G] door it's gotta be a quarter to [G] four
Is it [C] you again coming 'round for [G] more

Well, you can [D] love me tonight if you [D] want

But in the [C] morning make sure you're [C] gone

I'm talkin' to you [G] Hot Legs, wearing me out

[G] Hot Legs, you can scream and shout

[G] Hot Legs, are you still in school

G I love you honey G/ C/ G/ C/

[G] Got a most persuasive [G] tongue you promise all kinds of [G] fun

But what you [C] don't understand, I'm a working [G] man

Gonna [D] need a shot of vitamin [D] E

By the [C] time you're finished with [C] me

I'm talking to you [G] Hot Legs, you're an alley cat

[G] Hot Legs, you scratch my back

[G] Hot Legs, bring your mother too

G I love you honey G C G
