

You Wear It Well

Rod Stewart

[D] [Em] Em/ G/ [A] || [D] [Em] Em/ G/ A/
D I D had [G] nothing to do on this [G] hot afternoon
But to A/ settle down and A/ write you a [D] line
I been [G] meaning to phone ya, but [G] from Minnesota
Hell, A/ it's been a D/ very long [A] time you wear it [A] well
A Em/ little old D/ fashioned but G/ that's all [A] right A/

D/ Well, I sup- [G] pose you're thinking I [G] bet he's sinking
Oh, he A/ wouldn't get in A/ touch with [D] me
For [G] I ain't begging or [G] losing my head
I A/ sure do A/ want you to D/ know that you A/ wear it [A] well
There Em/ ain't a D/ lady in the G/ land so A/ fine, oh [A] my

D Remember D them [G] basement parties, your [G] brother's karate
[A] All day rock and roll [D] shows
The [G] homesick blues and the [G] radical views
[A] Haven't left a mark on D/ you you A/ wear it [A] well
A Em/ little out of D/ time but G/ I don't [A] mind
But I ain't for- [G] getting that you were once [A] mine but I [G] blew it without even [A] trying Now I'm [G] eating my heart out A/ trying to get a D/ letter through [D] [Em] Em/ G/ [A]

Em/ Since you've been D/ gone it's hard to G/ carry [A] on A/D Any- D way my [G] coffee's cold, and I'm [G] gettin' told that I [A] gotta get back to [D] work
So when the [G] sun goes low and you're [G] home alone
A/ Think of me A/ and try not to D/ laugh and I A/ wear it [A] well Em/ I don't ob- D/ ject if you G/ call col- [A] lect A/
Cause I ain't for- [G] getting that you were once [A] mine but I [G] blew it without even [A] trying Now I'm [G] eating my heart out A/ trying to get D/ back to you
[D] [Em] Em/ G/ [A] || [D] [Em] Em/ G/ A
